Dear Taron,

We would like to thank you for speaking at our North American Year End Event on December 8, 2006. Your keynote on strategies for stress-free living was enthusiastically anticipated by the employees who attended your sessions. We received lively feedback from participants, who found your program interesting, relevant and entertaining.

In addition to your interactive delivery, participants appreciated the comprehensive and well-researched nature of your program content. Of particular value, were the practical tips that employees could implement or use immediately in their personal, as well as professional lives.

As organizers, we are grateful for your experienced and well-organized approach during the planning stages. Our decision to customize the program, to meet the specific needs of our organization, undoubtedly added to the quality of the offering. The success of the program also helped my team to continue to build on our reputation as a significant and worthwhile partner within our organization.

We thoroughly enjoyed working with you and thank you again for your participation.

Kind Regards,
